NACE Update

Guest Speakers at NACE 2010

The program at the Northeast Aquaculture Conference and Expo 2010 (NACE) continues to develop, and includes a roster of exciting and informative plenary addresses by guest speakers from industry, science and government. These speakers will let you know what's happening up in Washington DC and down on the farm, with information important to your aquaculture business. Confirmed plenary speakers include:

Mr. Sebastian Belle: Executive Director, Maine Aquaculture Association, Hallowell, ME

Mr. Josh Goldman: Chief Executive Officer, Australis Aquaculture, Turners Falls, MA

Dr. Reginald Harrell: Executive Director, Northeast Regional Aquaculture Center, College Park, MD

Mr. Gary Jensen: National Program Leader, National Institute of Food and Agriculture, USDA, Washington, DC

Dr. Michael Rubino: Director, NOAA Aquaculture Program, Silver Spring, MD

Mr. Scott Soares: Commissioner, Massachusetts Dept. of Agriculture, Boston, MA

So, please join us at NACE 2010! The event features a full roster of invited speakers on a variety of useful topics, a trade show with suppliers and service providers to industry, field trips, and of course a great place to meet others in the business. Details on all aspects of the event – including the schedule of guest speakers - can be found on the website:
